

Ron Volpatti Memorial Scholarship

Established in 2005 by his family, the Ron Volpatti Memorial Scholarship honors former Brownsburg Community Schools educator and former director of the Harris Academy (known at the time as the Cooperative Achievement Program (CAP) High School).

Ron graduated from Butler University. In addition to working for the Brownsburg Community Schools, he also was the vice principal of the Indiana Girls School and principal of the Marion County Jail II. Prior to serving as director at Harris Academy in Brownsburg, Mr. Volpatti was director of Brownsburg Community Schools pupil services, principal of Brownsburg Intermediate School and principal of Brown Elementary. He was also the founder, president and co-owner of VVV Commercial Cleaning and Landscape Company and Ron Volpatti Cleaning Company.

Ron also had been an instructor at Ball State University and the Summer School Upper Division Counselor at Culver Military Academy. He developed and initiated several programs within the schools, including the Corporation Staffing Procedure for At-Risk Students, the Gesell Kindergarten Screen Training Workshop and the Brownsburg Community Schools ISTEP administrative guidelines. Ron passed away at the age of 59 in 2002 after a battle with cancer. His wife Gwen and his son Anthony survived him.

