Kitchen Supplies at ALPHA

sponsored in part by

SUMMERS™
Plumbing, Heating, & Cooling

This grant has made such a difference for ALPHA students! They use the kitchen supplies that were purchased every week which have opened up so many new learning opportunities. The child-safe knives have been wonderful - now students can do the chopping and cutting themselves instead of having to watch the teacher handle everything. And the Cooking Around the World Cookbook has introduced them to incredible recipes from different countries that they are excited to try.

The students have been so appreciative of all the new kitchen supplies and are eager to try the new recipes and use the equipment. They love getting to cut with the knives and take more leadership in the cooking process now that they have tools designed for them. They have also loved trying foods from around the world and talking about different dishes their own families make at home. They have been so open to trying new things and exploring different food options. These experiences have not only equipped students with practical cooking skills, but have also fostered a deeper appreciation for diverse cultures and traditions through the universal language of food.

BHS Alumni Spotlight

Jessie Stout
Class of 2004

A love of the mountains and outdoors along with a passion for helping others has allowed 2004 BHS graduate Dr. Jessie (Toth) Stout to live out her dream as a gastroenterologist with University of Utah Health. "I am completely obsessed with having a child and being a mom!" said a beaming Stout, taking a break between clinical appointments. "We do not know as much as we can know about the various aspects of health, and I work to find answers." After attending Indiana University, Jessie furthered her medical career in Missouri and Arkansas before settling in Utah, where she focuses on nutrition and the microbiome while teaching and treating patients. "For undergrad, IU was the only place to which I applied," said Jessie, who celebrated her 20th BHS reunion this past year. "I wanted to stay close to family and friends." Research remains crucial for Stout, who even worked in a fruit fly lab for additional experience. As a BHS soccer player, her favorite memories involved team camaraderie. "Whether it was hanging out after practice or team building activities, I really enjoyed being with that group of girls," she said. Jessie and husband Mitch live in Utah with 1-year-old daughter Adeline and enjoy hiking and traveling together.
